Congratulatory Message on the occasion of the 7th Buddhist Summit

Dear Venerables,

I am very pleased to know from Ven. Chandaratana in France that the 7th Buddhist Summit will be held in November 2017 in Sri Lanka, one of the leading countries of Theravada Buddhism, for the purpose of exchanging views about the development of Buddhism around the world.

I also received the information that the World Buddhist Summit Organization in Japan had undertaken the enormous task to build up a Nalanda Buddhist University in Japan. This is a great act of merit and indeed good news not only for Japanese Buddhists, but also for Buddhists throughout the world.

On behalf of the Vietnamese Buddhists in Germany, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your great achievements and wish all participants of the 7th Buddhist Summit a successful conference and fruitful discussion. May we, Buddhists from the various traditions, always work together for the benefit of all sentient beings.

Namo Sakya Muni Buddha
Many greetings from Germany!

Yours sincerely,

The Most Ven. Thich Nhu Dien
Founder of Vien Giac Monastery in Hannover
Leader of the Vietnamese Buddhists in Germany
